did".

Although Lou, Temel has a light pull in a thigh muscle he bould be almost 100 per cent fit, learnwhite, as a piccambine, as a piccambine, and a training session last night refore Darvill would consider his heliuson as definite.

Said Darvill; "I want to get some match play under his belt before the Oxford match".

bettire the Oxford match?. Whoever does take the substi-te's shirt, it will be after a cry late decision. Should mucks be selected. Darvill will see five forwards to manipulate, wing two major choices and any other possible variations.

any other possible variations. He could cutbe does not defended thus resume an orthodox fortistic countries at lockman, or maxima the 4-2-4, sking out a lockman. Weddetone take the Leukes ski held termistions there possible the control of the possible the control of the possible theory of the possible theory could be possible to games in hand. The stringth their challenge can be judged to game in high possible the control of the possible the control of the possible the possible to the possible the possible to the possibl

WYCOMBE WANDERERS F.C.

Saturday, 7th December

1st XI v WEALDSTONE Loakes Park, 3 p.m.

DOM ADA CSU

Yes—for £5 plus one month's rental of £2.2.0d, you can tent this really superb 19° 3-programme TV, transhle to BBCt, ITV... and BBCg! Complete with FREE magazine rack and cand. See example time t in nave this superb

installed

LOAKES PARK LINE-UPS

Wycombe Wanderers v. Woaldstone at Loakes Park (k.o. 3 p.m), Isthmian League.

Wealdscore A Williams: M Doyle D Leonard: D Bromley A Mc-Guinness C Franks, B Britter, R Townsend, D Swain, D Mostague, J-Hulchinson, Sub-Hagh Lindlay Wooking B

door of an International cap.
With vis games now under his belt as Wanderers' contre-forward, Vince Enrikeer would appear to have statisfied Daryil as an adequart specifical Commenting on the controversid positioning of the one-time defender. Darvill explained that his motives were "to take a lot of the weight off Tony Horseman".
Horseman, he said, was going through a bad patte when he made the switch.
"I donk, the experiment has

Another Lieur can be shown in Horseman's receird. For while he has secred. If goals since the change-over, he had not penetrated in the prior seven outlings.

No tickets are to he issued for the match at Oxford next Satur-day (December 14). "It will be a case of first come, first street," ammuned Wycombe Secretary, Bill Hayter, Because of a clash of team schams, both Wanderris and Coy change kin, Oxford will turn out in

Risborough 'keeper, George Geddes, fails in a desperate bid to pre goal. white, while Wycombe play in

Instead of accepting the Re-purt's suggestion that, as in cricket, all footballers be known as "players" and the pretence of Amateurism be dropped—the FA. promise a further drive to flush our "Shamateurism".

Away draw

Marion transforment of Marion.

Marion Leaves Onthino 2.

Marion Leaves Comment of Marion 1.

Marion Leaves Comment of Marion 2.

Marion Leaves Comment of Marion

Weavers back

the ankle a try-out in January, and has decided to make no deci-sion before then.

Hopes

are high

After going close in the 50th, minute, the lively McCormack took advantage of a clever flick by McBryde to beat Maskell again.

ngain.

It looked at this point as hough the more experienced survey side would take over, but if was not to be.

Buck stormed Berks and Bucks and in the $4th. minute Wokingsham's Ron Harper headed a cross sight out of the Sutrey keeper's bands and into the net.

In the 6thd minute the old.

inght out of the Surey assessments and into the net.

In the 63rd, minute the old Wycombe one-two went into action as Wouley crossed perfectly for Haiseman hurking at the fair post to head his side's fourth goal.

Bunting doubt

Freest Turners 7 Cionenham, el Totterioge, Berks and Bucks Intermediate Cue (round 3).
Turners, F. Pocock (pr. C. Bunting); Lexini, Reic Oavis, Painer, Morras, M. Cormack, Janes, Stone, Marstone United Reserves, Tenest Turners Reserves, Hellen't Leasue Reserves Settin Division 2.

Two changes

Princes Risborough Town v. The cham, at Windsor Playing Fields, Hellend League, Division 1.

rennic Leapus, Division 2.

Risborough Res.: J. Welch: J.
Bailey, T. Derrick, D. Carter, S. Bird.
D. Cyterer: D. Harell, D. Bonvin, P.
Clay, D. Brown, R. Greaves.

struggled on to the end. In the 12nd, minute a little against the run of play, Horseman got the list of his goals when he took advantage of a defensive slip to turn sharply on the ball and slam it home.

Brian Péel was unavailable last week but returns to the side instead of Jim Truett and Terry Derrick is dropped and plays in the researc side. In his place comes left, back Michael Ander-son, who is given his first-time chance, after many good perfor-mances in the reserves.

Full match reports in 'Mid-week'

Wycombe Wanderers 5, Ruklip Manor I

AFTER A casual start, Wycombe Wanderers stormed back in their match against Ruklip Manor on Tuesday to win 5-1, and secure an aggergate 11-1 advantage in the Mithras Cup tle.
Ruklip started well against the Wycombe side, and after a corner, hadly misjudged by the Wanderers' keeper, John Pratt, their inside sight headed their first and only goal into the back of the net.
Tony Horseman hit back with the Wanderers' equalising goal before half-time and when the whistle went, the half-time score stood at 1-1.

BROUGHT UP

gave norm a good ron-around for their win.

The team was to have included Keith Samuels, who was origin-ally judged fil. As he had two orech taken out in the morning it was decided to give him a rest, however, and Barry Baker was brought in to take his place. Wanderers? J. Pratt. D. Hall, C. Gale, J. Lailey, I. Rundle, D. Thomas, V. Bushy, B. Bisker, V. Faulkner, T. Horseman, L. Mer-rick.

Junior line-ups

Wasps t Combinat

Barboy and Lohn Back came Surrey and John Delancy had to head off the line when John Maskell was beaten. Tomorrow's senue to the Hertherheim in the Hoh, minute after Maskell had put a goal like Southern Counties Amateur McCormack faced through and the Maskell had been selected as Tilenel Homps are the Wycombe 'keeper no chance.'

However, their regular centr helf, Tommy Glenn, a servi player, has received a posti away from the area, and is thet fore no longer available. Form Bromley Reserve, Johnny Leit a great seat food snot to complice.

Payne, R. Collins, T. Pford
Berks, and Bucks; J. Maskell,
J. Ford, D. Smith; B. Pitts, Delancy, R. Hart; L. Worley, B.
Baker, R. Harper, A. Horseman,
I. Harper,
A. Horseman,
A.

Onlooker's Diary

Rugby 'Nor